Cadmus Communications Announces a Partnership with Printondemand-worldwide

Reston, VA (September 13, 2010) – Cadmus Communications, a Cenvéo company, today announced a partnership with Printondemand-worldwide, the leading UK-based digital printer, to provide print services as part of a global network to meet the international demand of Printondemand-worldwide’s customer base. As a global partner, Cadmus Communications will print and distribute all USA orders placed with Printondemand-worldwide in a true distributed print model.

Andy Cork, Managing Director of Printondemand-worldwide said, “We are delighted to announce our new partnership with Cadmus Communications, a hugely respected company with an illustrious history that stretches back over 125 years. Its commitment to the highest standards of quality and innovation is a perfect match with our own values at Printondemand-worldwide. In establishing this partnership with Cadmus Communications, we are now able to offer a faster, more efficient and more environmentally-friendly on-demand print solution to our clients in the USA than ever before, and we very much look forward to working closely with them.”

Through this partnership and the use of technology, USA orders placed with Printondemand-worldwide will flow from BookVault, a web-based asset management and procurement system, to Cadmus’ Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system and into production allowing for the seamless and timely fulfillment of high quality on-demand books of varying sizes and bind styles regardless of the order quantity; from one to many.

Gary Pawlaczyk, Executive Vice President of Sales & Marketing for Cadmus Communications, noted, “The partnership with Printondemand-worldwide provides both organizations with an opportunity to better serve the global demands of the marketplace quickly by utilizing the technologies and platforms already at our disposal. Through this distributed print model we will be opening the door to new opportunities that enhance the level of service currently experienced by users whose needs expand beyond the borders of a particular continent.”
